This policy applies to all staff employed in Public Schools NSW, in school and non-school based positions. It also applies to students who attend public schools and has implications for each school community.

1.1

In any one school there will be students who may experience difficulties with learning. These difficulties may vary in cause, nature, intensity and duration.

1.2

Learning difficulties may arise at any time throughout a student’s school life. Students may experience difficulties in learning because of the ways in which they learn or the rates at which they learn.

1.3

Students experiencing difficulties in learning will have differing levels of educational need, which may require the provision of one or more educational support services over varying periods of time.

1.4

Prime responsibility for meeting the specific learning needs of students with difficulties in basic areas of learning lies with the school and the classroom teacher.

1.5

The school learning and support team plays a key role in ensuring that the specific learning needs of students experiencing difficulties in learning are met.

2.1

This policy applies to all staff employed in Public Schools NSW, in school and non-school based positions. It also applies to students who attend public schools and has implications for each school community.
